

MESSAGE NOTES

Unimpressive

Roger Ellis | Lead Pastor
2 Corinthians 4:7-11, p. 804

The church is composed of individuals who are basically:

If this is the kind of people we are...how do we navigate next?
We navigate next (the days ahead) by realizing that...

1. We are simply ordinary people (2 Corinthians 4:7-11)
2. We are simply ordinary people who have been chosen and treasured by God (1 Peter 2:9)
3. We are simply ordinary people who have been chosen and treasured by God to be fashioned into a masterpiece (Ephesians 2:10)
4. We are simply ordinary people who have been chosen and treasured by God to be fashioned into a masterpiece to point people to Jesus (Ephesians 2:10 & Hebrews 12:1-2)

the one thing:

The church is designed to point people to Jesus

TAKING IT HOME NOTES FOR SMALL GROUP & PERSONAL STUDY

- 1 KEEPING IT REAL
Who is the character that you most identify with in the Bible? What is it that draws you to him or her? What would you like to ask them?
- 2 LOOK AT THE BOOK
Define the importance of “us” and “we” in Ephesians 2:10 and Hebrews 12:1-2. How would singular pronouns alter the message?
- 3 If you were to draw a scene from your life regarding your faith story what would it be and why?
- 4 THE NEXT STEP
Who can you commend for the faith story you see them living out right before your eyes? How will you do so?

NEXT STEPS

- Memorize Ephesians 2:10 and Hebrews 12:1-2.
- Identify those in your life that you are pointing toward Jesus.
- Share with someone this week why you believe we celebrate the Lord's Supper together rather than alone.
- Other _____.
