

LET'S TALK ABOUT HIM!

QUESTIONS TO UNPACK OUR STORY | JULY 11, 2021

Saul thought he loved God. He knew God's laws and obeyed them his whole life. Saul thought obeying the law was what God wanted. But Saul didn't know following the law and being a good person wasn't enough. He needed Jesus!

SMALL GROUP Q & A

- Why did Saul want to arrest people who believed in Jesus?
- Why did Jesus talk to Saul on the road to Damascus?
- How do you think Saul might have felt while he was speaking to Jesus on the road to Damascus?
- How did Jesus change everything in Saul's life?
- How does Jesus change people's lives today?

LET'S THINK ABOUT IT...

God's love changed Saul's heart. He was completely different after his conversion! Instead of putting people into jail because they believed in Jesus, Saul started telling people about Jesus, too.

Has God's love changed you or someone you know? Take some time to share how God has changed your life with the rest of the group.
