Picnic with Jesus

Dr. Daryl Donovan
Interim Lead Pastor

John 6:1-15 ESV

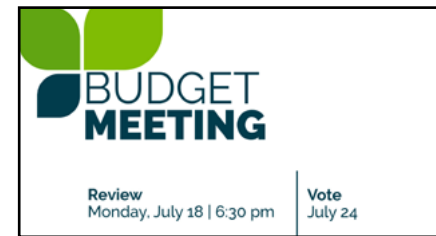

It's Fourth of July weekend - a time for get togethers, celebrations and picnics! In John 6, we join Jesus at a picnic. Miraculously, He feeds more than 5,000 people with just a few fish and a few loaves of bread. His abundant blessing is available to touch every area of our lives!

- Only two miracles are in all four Gospels. Resurrection and Feeding 5,000.
- How is John's narrative different from the other three?
 - More personal. Reflects the intimacy of John.
 - Only one to mention Passover.
 - Only one to mention that Jesus did what He did to test His disciples.
- According to John, what is this sign pointing to?
 - The compassion of the Christ.
 - The capacity of the Christ.
 - The commitment of the Christ.
 - Our confidence in the Christ.

TAKE HOME

- Dare to believe the great things of JESUS.
- Dare to live larger in the power of the Holy Spirit
- Abide in Him and bear much fruit.
